

This practice is currently installing a new electronic patient record system called SystemOne.

The new system will bring substantial benefits for both patients and staff.

We thank you for your patience during this time of transition.

For more information on the system, visit www.tpp-uk.com.